

Disaster Preparation Work Sheet

Jacksonville Equine Associates LLC

Store forms in a secure waterproof folder or on a CD or Thumb Drive and take it with you.

1. Farm location- Flood zone. www.msc.fema.gov print map and attach to plan

2. Follow storm progress

-Internet- www.wunderground.com/tropical/

-TV- local stations

-Radio- local stations, have extra batteries should power go out

3. Evacuation Plan- Locations- <http://www.sshc.org/evac/search.htm>

Destination

Destination

Evacuation route

Alternate route

4. Horses- Information, name, age, photos, Microchip ID #. Attach copies of Coggins test and health certificate (event permit good for 6 months) <http://jaxequine.com/EXTENSIONFORM.PDF>

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. Secure structures

a. Move loose objects indoors from aisle way and paddocks.

b. Tie jumps and poles together or store indoors.

c. Move trailers to high ground in field away from trees.

d. Check barn doors and shutters.

6. Store drinking water- 7-day supply

a. # (Of horses) x 20(gal.) x 7(days)= total water needed

b. _____x 20 x 7=_____gallons

7. Store feed-7 day supply

a. Grain/sweet feed (approx. 1lb per 100lbs body wt.)

b. Hay – stored indoors, don't rely on round bales

c. All feed stored securely off the ground and under waterproof tarps.

8. Bed all stalls and aisle ways for pastured horses.

(Note- if barn has questionable strength leave horses out.)

Away from weak structures and trees that have shown prior damage.

Remove all debris from the field.

9. Clear fence lines- trees and limbs that will damage fence. Store temporary fencing materials; white PVC fence wire, yellow hazard tape, spare posts nails and staples.

10. Secure a GENERATOR

- To run pump for water and any power equipment needed after the storm

- 4HP or higher

11. First aid Kit

Bandage material, sheet cotton, gauze, tape (vet wrap, duct tape), scissors, leg wraps.

Wound ointment- Nolvasan, Triple antibiotic

Analgesics- Banamine, Phenylbutazone

Syringes and needles

Clean towels

Fresh water to clean wounds (1-2 gallons)

Soap- hand soap, shampoo, and betadine scrub

Insect repellent

Flash lights and batteries (head lamps are good while working on the horse)

Spare halters and lead ropes.

Tranquilizers- Acepromazine

12. Emergency contact numbers:
